Americans with Disabilities Act

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

It is the policy of the State of Kansas to comply with provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C.A. Section 12101, et seq. ("ADA"). The ADA prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of their disability. The ADA provides, in part, that qualified individuals with disabilities shall not be excluded from participating in or be denied the benefits of any program, service or activity offered by the State.

The ADA requires that all programs services and activities, when viewed in their entirety, are readily accessible to and usable by qualified individuals with disabilities. State agencies must communicate effectively with individuals with speech, visual and hearing impairments and provide auxiliary communication aids to qualified individuals with disabilities participating in or benefiting from the State's programs, services or activities to afford equal opportunity.

Should you wish to review the ADA or its interpretive regulations, ask questions about your rights and remedies under the ADA, request a reasonable modification to the State's policies, practices or procedures, or file a written grievance alleging noncompliance with the ADA, please contact the State ADA Coordinator as listed below.

Strong Families Make A Strong Kansas

STATE OF KANSAS

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Grievance Procedure

As Secretary of Administration, I have hereby adopted the following grievance procedure, in accordance with Executive Order 92-154.

For all state agencies, boards and commissions under the Governor's jurisdiction, the State of Kansas has adopted an internal grievance procedure providing for prompt and equitable resolution of grievances alleging any action prohibited by the U.S. Department of Justice regulations implementing Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Title II states, in part, that "no otherwise qualified disabled individual shall, solely by reason of such disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits, or be subjected to discrimination" in programs or activities sponsored by a public entity.

Any person who feels they have been discriminated against on the basis of a disability by the State of Kansas in any of the above-quoted activities may file a grievance.

Whenever an individual files a complaint (or other state agency administration process) with a state agency pertaining to an action prohibited under the ADA, the agency shall decline jurisdiction of the ADA matter and refer it to the State ADA Coordinator for handling pursuant to this grievance procedure.

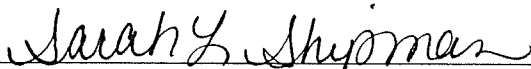

Grievances should be addressed to State ADA Coordinator, c/o Kansas Department for Children and Families, DSOB, 6th floor, Topeka, KS 66612, phone (785) 296-1389 and the following guidelines apply:

A grievance should be filed in writing or verbally, to be transcribed, contain the name and address of the person filing it, and briefly describe the alleged ADA violation.

1. A grievance should be filed within 45 days after the complainant becomes aware of the alleged violation.
2. The State ADA Coordinator shall refer the grievance to a designee, who normally will be the ADA contact person for the state agency, board or commission involved.
3. The State ADA Coordinator's designee may formally resolve the grievance or investigate the grievance as the designee determines appropriate. These rules contemplate informal but thorough investigations, affording all interested persons an opportunity to submit evidence relevant to a grievance.
4. A written determination as to the validity of the grievance and a description of the resolution, if any, shall be issued by the designee and a copy forwarded to the complainant and the involved agency, board or commission.

no later than 60 days after its filing. A copy of the written determination and resolution, if any, shall be forwarded to the State ADA Coordinator. When the designee to whom a grievance is referred is the ADA contact person for the state agency, the ADA contact person shall be subject to any internal agency approval processes established by such contact person's agency head.

5. The State ADA Coordinator shall maintain a file of all complaints, determinations and resolutions of the State of Kansas relating to the grievances filed.
6. The State ADA Coordinator, upon the Coordinator's own initiative, may reconsider the grievance decision or either party to the grievance can request a reconsideration of the case in instances where a party is dissatisfied with the resolution. The request for reconsideration should be made within 30 days of receipt of the written determination to the State ADA Coordinator.
7. The right of a person to prompt and equitable resolution of the grievance filed hereunder shall not be impaired by the person's pursuit of other remedies such as filing of an ADA grievance with the responsible federal department or agency or the Kansas Human Rights Commission. Use of this grievance procedure is not a prerequisite to the pursuit of other remedies provided by the ADA or the Kansas Act Against Discrimination. However, as noted above, this grievance procedure shall be used in a lieu of any other complaint or state agency administrative process provided by a state agency other than the Kansas Human Rights Commission.
8. These rules shall be construed to protect the substantive rights of interested persons to meet appropriate due process standards and to assure that the State of Kansas complies with the ADA and implementing regulations.

Department of Administration

Equal Employment Opportunity is THE LAW

Private Employers, State and Local Governments, Educational Institutions, Employment Agencies and Labor Organizations

Applicants to and employees of most private employers, state and local governments, educational institutions, employment agencies and labor organizations are protected under Federal law from discrimination on the following bases:

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, protects applicants and employees from discrimination in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), or national origin. Religious discrimination includes failing to reasonably accommodate an employee's religious practices where the accommodation does not impose undue hardship.

DISABILITY

Title I and Title V of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, protect qualified individuals from discrimination on the basis of disability in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment. Disability discrimination includes not making reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, barring undue hardship.

AGE

The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended, protects applicants and employees 40 years of age or older from discrimination based on age in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment.

SEX (WAGES)

In addition to sex discrimination prohibited by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, as amended, the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended, prohibits sex discrimination in the payment of wages to women and men performing substantially equal work, in jobs that require equal skill, effort, and responsibility, under similar working conditions, in the same establishment.

GENETICS

Title II of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 protects applicants and employees from discrimination based on genetic information in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment. GINA also restricts employers' acquisition of genetic information and strictly limits disclosure of genetic information. Genetic information includes information about genetic tests of applicants, employees, or their family members; the manifestation of diseases or disorders in family members (family medical history); and requests for or receipt of genetic services by applicants, employees, or their family members.

RETALIATION

All of these Federal laws prohibit covered entities from retaliating against a person who files a charge of discrimination, participates in a discrimination proceeding, or otherwise opposes an unlawful employment practice.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU BELIEVE DISCRIMINATION HAS OCCURRED

There are strict time limits for filing charges of employment discrimination. To preserve the ability of EEOC to act on your behalf and to protect your right to file a private lawsuit, should you ultimately need to, you should contact EEOC promptly when discrimination is suspected:

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), 1-800-669-4000 (toll-free) or 1-800-669-6820 (toll-free TTY number for individuals with hearing impairments). EEOC field office information is available at www.eeoc.gov or in most telephone directories in the U.S. Government or Federal Government section. Additional information about EEOC, including information about charge filing, is available at www.eeoc.gov.

Employers Holding Federal Contracts or Subcontracts

Applicants to and employees of companies with a Federal government contract or subcontract are protected under Federal law from discrimination on the following bases:

Executive Order 11246, as amended, prohibits job discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex or national origin, and requires affirmative action to ensure equality of opportunity in all aspects of employment.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, protects qualified individuals from discrimination on the basis of disability in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment. Disability discrimination includes not making reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, barring undue hardship. Section 503 also requires that Federal contractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified individuals with disabilities at all levels of employment, including the executive level.

DISABLED, RECENTLY SEPARATED, OTHER PROTECTED, AND ARMED FORCES SERVICE MEDAL VETERANS

The Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended, 38 U.S.C. 4212, prohibits job discrimination and requires affirmative action to employ and advance in employment disabled veterans, recently separated veterans (within three years of discharge or release from active duty), other protected veterans (veterans who served during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized), and Armed Forces service medal veterans (veterans who, while on active duty, participated in a U.S. military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded).

RETALIATION

Retaliation is prohibited against a person who files a complaint of discrimination, participates in an OFCCP proceeding, or otherwise opposes discrimination under these Federal laws.

Any person who believes a contractor has violated its nondiscrimination or affirmative action obligations under the authorities above should contact immediately:

The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP), U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210, 1-800-397-6251 (toll-free) or (202) 693-1337 (TTY). OFCCP may also be contacted by e-mail at OFCCP-Public@dol.gov, or by calling an OFCCP regional or district office, listed in most telephone directories under U.S. Government, Department of Labor.

Programs or Activities Receiving Federal Financial Assistance

RACE, COLOR, NATIONAL ORIGIN, SEX

In addition to the protections of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Employment discrimination is covered by Title VI if the primary objective of the financial assistance is provision of employment, or where employment discrimination causes or may cause discrimination in providing services under such programs. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities which receive Federal financial assistance.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of disability in any program or activity which receives Federal financial assistance. Discrimination is prohibited in all aspects of employment against persons with disabilities who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of the job.

If you believe you have been discriminated against in a program of any institution which receives Federal financial assistance, you should immediately contact the Federal agency providing such assistance.
